“ I just read the Sunday paper and found out about "Miss" Hilda. Memories flooded my mind of what a gracious, lovely person she was. I remember when she could no longer be our fifth grade teacher due to her pregnancy with Janet. We were so upset because she was such a great teacher. She and Mr. Horace were the perfect couple. I know that she will be deeply missed by all her family. But, she leaves such a sweet memory for all that ever came in contact with her. Sending my love and my deepest sympathy.

“ Dear family, please accept my sympathy in the loss of your sweet mother. I was with her several times for judging of reading entries of school children and learn to like her so much. She and Mr. Horace were also good friends of my parents. A mother's death is a loss that is deeply profound to her children. Please remember all the good times you had with her and lean on the Lord for strength.
