“ Dearest Ms. Alice, I was so sorry to hear of your loss of Mr. Hollis. He was such a wonderful man who made you so very, very happy. I have been to your house many times. You were such a wonderful and loving neighbor to me when I lived at Riverview and we lived next door to each other. I never will forget how happy Mr. Hollis made you and how happy you were to marry him. I attended your wedding at the Pine Lodge that beautiful day and had never seen you (or Mr. Hollis) so happy and the total fulfillment he brought to your life and how in turn you fulfilled each other. He was truly an exceptional man who breathed each breath to make you happy. May God Bless You and may your happy memories of your time together keep you for years to come. Love, Joy
