“ To all my family--- I am very sorry to hear about Aunt Imogene. You are in my prayers. I was telling Laura as I thought back that I could not think of one-- not one negative memory of Aunt Imogene. She was always the nicest person. God Bless all of you. Oh, I had almost forgot that she was my teacher in the 8th grade history. There are so many wonderful memories of us as kids going to Houma to see Uncle Jackson, Aunt Mary Lou, Uncle Denman & Aunt Imogene. I miss her.

“ I am just so sorry to read this sad news. I had Ms. Imogene as a teacher in Jr. High for a couple of classes. She was probably just out of college. And, she was so incredibly nice. I will pray that your memories of this sweet lady will envelope you, and sustain you through your grief; she never aged in my eyes. May God bless all of her family.
