“ I was sorry to hear about J. Y.'s death. I have lots of memories of him from the summers I spent with my grandparents. He was always smiling even when he allowed me to (try) to pick cotton with Elaine for him. That cotton field was never the same, I'm sure. I got to visit with him for a few minutes at Pat and Elaine's Anniversary a few years ago. I didn't think he would remember me but, as always, he did. Im so thankful for that time we had even tho it was brief. We'll be praying for all of you. Shirley
