“ I always enjoyed talking with Jack when I saw him in Winn Dixie. He was never too busy to acknowledge anyone and was a gracious man. He always loved talking about his family. I had a lot of respect for him as he took his job seriously and you never knew where you might run into him in the store whether he was stocking shelves, helping cashiers or assisting customers. Winn Dixie will miss his leadership and can do ability. Like wise the community is minus one darn good man. Prayers for his family, friends, coworkers and customers.

“ I had the pleasure to work with Jack Todd at the Covington Winn Dixie 24 years ago. I was floral manager and he was in produce and became Assistant Manager. Everyone loved working with him because he was always willing to help with whatever your department needed. He was a true friend to everyone and highly respected. This is a Hugh loss to each person that was blessed to have known him. I saw him a few weeks ago at Winn Dixie and he was his friendly smiling self taking to everyone. Prayers for his wife and family

“ One of my favorite coworkers at Winn Dixie. Always going out of his way to put smiles on people's faces and help his coworkers and customers. Often went above and beyond, and I don't think he ever forgot a single face. From dairy department (when I worked there) to store manager, he always seemed to have time for old friends and acquaintances. He definitely was special. My condolences to the family. He will be missed very much.

“ As one of Jack Todd's former teachers, my heart is broken to hear of his passing. The gregarious teenager I remember was kind, caring and compassionate. He always had a smile and a simple Pat on my shoulder as he walked by. I just adored him. A huge loss for his family and the community of Franklinton. The life he led and the examples of kindness and love will never fade. Until we meet again.

“ I’ve known Jack Todd for many years as we played basketball together and then watched our children play ball together. He was a special guy who was always a joy to talk to and be around. Many great memories Jack Todd and I’m sure we will meet again. My prayers go out to your wife and children my friend. May GOD bless all of them during this difficult time.

“ Mr. Todd was a awesome boss he would get right there and work along with you he stayed busy he was an example of what boss should be. He told you when you done wrong and he would tell you when you done a good job. He made sure to thank me for going the extra mile when Covid hit I sat on the floor and crawled around the registers cleaning them and scrub them good. He said if everyone worked like that we'd have the best store well I'm sure he was just trying to make me feel good for being on the floor looking crazy lol he guided me along with Tommy and few others who I worked closely with the last 4 years. Mr. Todd could make you afraid of him when he called you to the office just while going you'd say oh lord what did I do just to get there and him say he can you do this for me or thank you for showing up early today. To sum it up I'll say this he cared about people and kids genuinely I'll never forget all the times you played ball in the store and chased Liam playing he love d you Mr. Todd we all going to miss you very much. My thoughts and prayers are with Mrs. Tiffany and y'all's kids and family.

“ I met Mr. Todd when I transferred from the Westbank store to Franklinton he greeted me with respect the 1st time I met him. He was a awesome man and boss. He taught me a thing or two when I worked at Winn Dixie. I had a accident in 2012 that forever change my life. And I had to leave Winn Dixie. He would always pass me in the store and ask when was I coming back. His wife Mrs. Tiffany is a sweet loving lady. His children was just as respectful as could be. He was so excited about becoming a grandfather couldn't wait for the baby to be born. Im glad he got to meet his precious baby before he earned his wings. He would even allow my son Randy to come sit at Winn Dixie when he had a rough night with seizures just so I could keep an eye on him. Mr. Todd you will be forever missed. Go fly high and watch over your precious family. May you rest in peace.
