“ Half a year...gone. I can't believe it's been six months already. Seems like just yesterday I seen your smiling face on my porch. All the families involved in the aftermath of this tragedy are working diligently to get to the truth. Regardless of the outcome, I know what happened. You did not do this. Rest in Peace My Love, until our souls are reunited. I've said it most of my adult life, many times in your ear. You are my soul-mate and life just isn't the same without you in it. I Love You So Much and Miss You Tremendously. Watch over us until we meet again My Love!

“ Jake, it has been over a week now and I still can not stop crying every time I think about you. I think about you every day many times a day. I know you are giving them a fit up there but at least you are not alone. I know you have loveing family members with you and are shotted a lot of pool. Keep a look out for me when my number is pulled and we can go fishing for as long as we want. Love Dad.

“ It's been 10 days, grandson, and the pain hasn't gotten any better. I know you are smiling that stupid smile up there and you are swapping stories with Poppo. Your passing has reconnected your older brother to the family, you are always doing kind and good things, some things never change. I "Thank God" you were in my life, even for so short a time. You told me La. is your home and I will make sure some part of you stays in La. forever, rite along side of Poppo and the rest of the family. "Death leaves a heartache no one can heal. Love leaves a memory no one can steal" See you soon Jakie.. Grammie

“ Jake, You were taken much to soon son. You still had a lot of living to do. But now God has one of the best to kick some asses if need be. Icould write a book about what I would like to say but your famly already knows how fine of a man you were and I am very proud to have had you as my son. Iknow the pain will never go away and you will be in my every thought. I will love you for all eternity son. You were a Knight in Shining Armor and much more than that to me. This is the hardest thing I have ever had to do in my life is try to say goodbye to one of my children. I can only hope I never have to do it again. I want the world to know how proud I am to have had you as my son and I promise to get to the truth. I will Love You For All Eternity and I miss you so very much. I keep waiting for you to come son but somebody took that away from us both. You will always be in my heart and that is something they can't take away from me. LOVEING YOU FOR ETERNITY , Dad [Redbird].

“ You were taken much too soon. You will be greatly missed but the love I felt for you will never stop. I will raise our children in your light and share the loving memories that I have so that you will live forever in our hearts. The days just aren't the same, the everyday actions seem so wrong, and I hope you will always know the love we have for you will never perish and the memories of you will live on.

“ Jake you were such a great kid and my memories thankfully are permanent. To lose your life committing a selfless act for your friends comes as no surprise and serves to temper the pain a little. I love you and will miss you. "Uncle" Charlie

“ It seems like God takes away the good ones much too soon. With all the trouble that Pop is given in heaven he is getting ready to get kicked out so God said let me get someone up here that can handle you. You know Jacob can handle Pops. He was your angle well he still is all of your angle now, and Thank God he will keep Pop in heaven.
