

James Clark Bateman

June 25, 1942 - March 5, 2021

JAMES CLARK BATEMAN, AGE 78

And a resident of the Richardson Community died Friday evening March 5, 2021 at Lakeview Regional Medical Center. He was the owner/operator of Bateman's Diesel Service in Franklinton for 45 years. He loved working and going in to the shop every day. James enjoyed deer and rabbit hunting and earlier in life always kept a large pack of beagles, which he loved working with. He collected Ford tractors and liked to work on his property. James liked to go to Main Street Café each day for lunch to visit and eat with his friends.
