“ We are so saddened by the news of Jan's passing. She was such a gracious Southern Lady who always cared more for the needs of others than her own. She reached out to us when my father was so ill last fall. Her emails and prayers were such a support to us. Please know that our love and prayers are with you as you grieve for her loss. May God hold you in the palm of his hand. Bill and Judy Burch, Steven, Katherine, and Matthew

“ "Oh! For the Love of the Master! Look who just passed through the gates! Little Jan Moore Jenkins!" St. Peter said to Gabriel. "I guess that after she's spoken to the Master she'll be looking up all of her family and friends, not to mention that F.H.S. Class of '65 crowd. They're always talking over ole times! It is truly amazing how such a small woman could have cast such a large shadow while on earth?" To which Gabriel replied with a wink, "Yes, kind of like a mustard seed!" My, and my family's tears and prayers are with you and your family Richard!

“ I guess by adding my condolences here, I'm forced to accept the fact that Jan, is indeed, gone from us. Even when she was too ill to communicate via email, there was always an update from you, Richard, or you, Leanne, telling us how hard Jan was fighting and how much she appreciated our prayers. We waited patiently for each update. We prayed harder when she weakened and cheered when she rallied. Because we all loved Jan! Now ... we will pray for you, her family.
Please know that you are not grieving alone. We, together, are mourning the loss of the cutest, sweetest, and 'petite-est' girl of our class. May God strengthen you with unlimited awesome memories.

“ Richard and the family will be in our prayers and thoughts as Jan is now in a better place than all of us. It was good to see both of you at last November's reunion at the Myles's home in Baton Rouge. Mary was not a classmate and was particularly impressed with her conversation with Jan on that occasion. Such a small lady with such a big heart.
