“ Dear Ms Lutha mae and family,just a note to say Mr J.D. was a friend to all and never met a stranger.I will never forget how when he would leave myles drive inn how all the coffe drinkers would ask him to do his train sound, what good memories these are as I know you to will have many to help make the days ahead better. As we know he is resting in the arms of Jesus now free of pain and we need to serve our Lord till our time is done here and we again will be with him again. God bless all of you
