“ *Mr. Melvin and Ms. Clara Faye and family,
Not a day goes by that I do not think about Jeanee. She is gone but certainly not forgotten. She was a great friend and I have many great memories with her. The two of us could always have a good laugh. May God continue to give you all strength and peace. I love you guys.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. At that time we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Ms. Simmons

“ Ms. Clara, Terry, and Ricky, I wanted to express my sympathy to you all your family for the loss of Janee'. It was an honor and a pleasure to be part of her care and to get to know each of you. You are such a special family and even though things are bleak right now I know you will find strength through each other and comfort in the fact that you loved Janee' and stood steadfastly by her side. I am still praying for you daily, but I rejoice in the fact that sweet Janee' is in a better place. Love to you all, Michele Garner, RN ICU

“ My heart breaks for your family. Loosing someone so precious is so hard. Just know she is wearing her angel wings now. God has called home a special angel. Try and be strong as we know God is in control. I know what it feels like to lose a sibling at such a young age the pain never goes away, but it does get a little easier. You will all be in my prayers for the days that lie ahead. Much love to you all.

“ Bro. Melvin and Mrs. Clara Faye, Our hearts go out and our prayers go up for you for peace and comfort during what has been a long and drawn out ordeal. You are to be commended for your faithful and tireless love and devotion for what must have been an angel on loan from God in your precious daughter. I remain impressed and blessed by your unwavering faith in our Lord during our visits at the hospital. May God comfort, strengthen and bless you as only He can is my prayer. Bro Toby
