“ So sorry to hear about this good man's passing. We have good memory of us going to the shop he worked at. He would come out and talk to my kids and often buy them a drink. Prayers for comfort to his family. From Paul and Ruth Bailey.

“ We got him some pretty green shoes and all he talked about before they came were the shoes. And then when they finally did come it was all he talked about. It was so nice to see him happy through all the pain he was going through.
