

Joey Anthony Hepting, Sr.

June 8, 1956 - September 25, 2015

JOEY ANTHONY HEPTING, SR. AGE 59

And a resident of Mt. Hermon died early Friday morning September 25, 2015 at his home. He was a native and longtime resident of Harvey while working at the Gretna Machine and Iron Works for many years. Joey moved to the Northshore 22 years ago and owned his own cabinet-making shop because he was a master wood craftsman that could build just about anything. He dearly loved his family and was an amazing father figure to his young grandchildren, nieces and nephews and the numerous foster children he was blessed to know through the years.

Survived by:

Wife of 30 years: Angele Trosclair Hepting of Mt. Hermon

3 Daughters and Sons in law: Dana Hepting Holler and Taylor Holler of Waxahachie, TX,

Kristen Elizabeth "Hag" Hepting and B.J. Rester of Mt. Hermon,
Casey Elizabeth Hepting of Poplarville

Son: Joey Anthony Hepting, Jr. of Mt. Hermon

Grandchildren: Elizabeth, Hanna, Skylar, Nathan, Rylin, Jade, Tanzie, Levi, Makenzie

Brother and Sister in law: Alvin Hepting and Debbie Hepting of Marrero

Nieces: Brandi, Lisa, Brittany, Bambi

He was preceded in death by his parents Alvin Howard Hepting and Marian Thomassie Hepting, grandson Zachary Holler, and a sister Susan Omond.

Family gathered at the home this past weekend to fellowship and share remembrances of Joey.

I remember Mr Joey was my neighbor for many years before him and Angele was married and we used to play Atari on the weekends. He was a very good man and a great friend.
