“Mrs. Janice and Family, I am so sorry for the loss of Mr. Wade, and for the ordeal that your family has been through. I wish I had had the chance to know Mr Wade personally, but from the love and concern that you all showed during his illness, I am sure that he was a wonderful man and a blessing in your lives. No words are sufficient, but please know that all our family shares your sense of grief, and our hearts cry with yours. Much love and prayers to all of you.

“Janice and family... I was so sad to hear of Wade's passing. He gladly donated blood during a time that was literally life saving for me (early seventies) when we were co-workers. We had a running joke between us, the few times I saw him after that, and he was right, I was a better person thanks to his gift and knowing him and his humor.

“ dear jan, found this notice when we got home this past week - our sympathies are extended to you and the extended family members - if you need someone to cry with you, i can handle that - i remember going to see ms shorty knight the day dillon died, and when i walked in the door of her house she said, "no one has cried with me, that won't be the case with drew - he will cry with me" - i didn't know what to say, so i just sat down and cried with her over the loss of my dear friend and fellow singer - may God wrap his loving arms around you through the presence of His Holy Spirit

“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. Then we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible.
Sincerely, Ms. Simmons

“ Dear Family, We are truly saddened by the death of our class mate and friend. We started school together and stayed together as one class through the 12th grade. We have many memories of Wade and our school days at Thomas High School. Wade fought a courageous battle dealing with his health problems and our prayers have been with you through your long vigil these past few months. May God bless and comfort you, as only he can, at this sad time.
