

Judith D. Fazekas

February 12, 1945 - June 30, 2021

JUDITH D. FAZEKAS, AGE 76

And a resident of Franklinton passed away Wednesday evening June 30, 2021. She was born in Atlanta, Georgia on February 12, 1945 and raised there until young adulthood. Judie was always proud to say that she grew up in Atlanta. She later obtained a Psychology degree from Georgia State University. Judie worked as a pre-surgery counselor for cardiac patients at Georgia Baptist Hospital and later worked at Ochsner Medical Center after moving to Louisiana with her husband. The couple then lived in New Jersey where she worked in real estate and retail sales. Judie was retired after moving to Washington Parish in 1995. She loved being in the beautiful outdoors and enjoyed just viewing and listening to nature. Judie was an animal lover and had parakeets and many special pets through the years including her Toy Poodle “Cheerio” and Papillon “Daisy”. Judie enjoyed listening to her favorite music every day and spending quality time with her family.

Judy was not only beautiful on the outside she was beautiful in the inside. She faced more challenges and heart ache than anyone else I know.. Judy was a true example of a Southern Lady. She will truly be miss by her family and friends. My prayers are with Wayne, Holy and young Luke.
