

Judy Rabuffo

August 11, 1939 - August 24, 2023

JUDITH ANN MOORE RABUFFO, AGE 84

And a resident of Franklinton passed away Thursday night August 24, 2023 at her home. She was born in Fort Worth, TX on August 11, 1939 and with her father's federal government service, the family moved often around to different areas around the United States, even living on military bases in Japan and Taiwan for a time. Judy attended Georgetown University School of Nursing before becoming a Registered Nurse. She worked in areas around the Northeastern states before moving to Franklinton to care for family members. Judy continued to work as a nurse for several years in the long term care industry before retiring in 1998. She was an active member of Holy Family Catholic Church, where she was a member of the Altar and Rosary Society and the Legion of Mary. Judy was also a Eucharistic minister within the church. She was previously on the Board of Directors for the Varnado Store Museum and the Washington Parish Library system, as Judy was an avid reader including her favorite Shakespeare. She also enjoyed listening to classical music and traveling, going to visit family in Connecticut, Massachusetts and Vermont many times.

She is survived by:

3 Children and Spouses: Mark and Mary Rabuffo of North Branford, CT,

Paul Rabuffo and Nicole Crocker of Sutton, MA,
Courtney Rabuffo and John Roberts of North Hero, VT

Grandchildren: Molly Rabuffo,
