“ One of my very favorite stops when I was through Mt. Hermon was to visit with a dear friend who lived "in a house by the side of a road and was a friend of man". Loved the old guy and am sad. Mr. Finley

“ I was so saddened to hear of Mr. Doc's passing. He was a part of my entire life, giving me some of the most awesome memories as far back as my childhood. The Schillings and the Millers shared a lifetime of births, graduations, gardens, marriages, ballgames, milking cows, church revivals, and so many other life events that blended all of us together into one big family! I loved his jovial humor and infectious laughter and really enjoyed that period of time when he led the singing at Mt. Pisgah and I played the piano. Bless his heart, so many happy memories! Unfortunately, we've also shared some heartbreaking times when we have to lose another precious soul in our family circle. We've always been there to help each other through the darkest hours of emptiness and sorrow.

Although this pain won't ever go away completely, we have the assurance that the Lord walks with us each day as we learn, somehow, to live on without them. We will see them again but not in the sickly bodies they had when the Lord took them home. We will see them in their new, healthy, youthful bodies just beaming with joy and happiness!! This hopeful thought has gotten me through some very dark hours and I hope it will help ease the pain you are feeling now. I pray that God will bless you beyond measure with His perfect peace and loving comfort. I pray that you will rest in His promise that one day we will once again see Mr. Doc and the rest of our loved ones -- never to be separated again.

“ I will never forget the days of church fellowships at Mt. Pisgah, digging graves for people in the community, and those spontaneous Sunday Night get-togethers at someone's house. There didn't have be much of an excuse to cook burgers and make homemade ice cream. Mr. Doc was a part of it all and a very special influence in my life.

Hay hauling was a special time. The Schilling brothers and Mr. Silas always got together and helped one another with that. What a blessing to see this special family work together the way they did. I hauled hay for all of them. Those were special times. Mr. Doc always had everyone laughing. He could always put a humorous spin on anything. I will miss him and look forward to seeing him in Heaven. He and all the brothers must be having a glorious reunion with all the family in Heaven.

Our prayers for the family and friends as we mourn his loss. -- Joey Miller
