

J.W. Mulina

June 20, 1935 - March 2, 2014

JAMES WESLEY (J.W.) MULINA, SR., AGE 78

And a resident of Franklinton passed into eternity March 2, 2014 at his home after an extended illness. He was a loving husband and loved being with his family and always looked forward to their visits. J.W. was a member of New Hope Baptist Church near Folsom and a former dragline operator with the Louisiana Highway Department. He then went on to work and retired after many years of service from Dairymen, Inc. He loved camping, fishing and traveling around the United States when his health permitted. J.W. enjoyed drinking coffee at Boyd's Auto Parts while swapping stories and reliving old-times. He was a horse and dog enthusiast and enjoyed the company of his animals. Years ago, J.W. often fox hunted and loved working and listening to his dogs.

Survived by:
