KATHERINE "KAREN" RICHARDSON, AGE 49

Kate was a talented writer who wrote beautiful stories about the events in her life. Kate's children and grandchildren were truly her pride and joy. She enjoyed cooking for her family and friends and loved being a part of her church family at Union Primitive Baptist Church in Ruth, MS. there are other photos in this album....and Kate and I agreed, when you write the story of your life....the only one other than you that should hold the pen....is the LORD

“ I met Kate on Farmtown; a silly little game on Facebook back in 2009. We would stand on each other's farms and chat all night. We were both going through a spell of insomnia at the time...and oh, how glad I am that we met. She was a blessing to me, and I will love her forever. Although we never met in person, we shared long phone calls and PMs. We often joked we were twins separated at birth. I just started a new job recently, and she sent me flowers, because, "They need to know from the start how special you are!" We shared a love for critters, sarcastic humor, and the Lord. I will miss everything about her.

the tractor was Sis Kate's prayer place...she loved to tractor! and on her wedding day...she loved Bro Mike then, as she had since she was a child....and every day thereafter. We are praying for you, Bro Mike (maybe not on a REAL tractor....but on our own "prayer tractors") “ Kate and I became friends and sisters on Facebook. We met one night when neither of us could sleep and both had logged on to Facebook. We chatted a very long time. I knew we'd be friends forever! Kate and I didn't always agree, but I loved her for allowing me to be me. She knew people were different and she just knew how to love others in their difference. We shared a common faith and had sweet discussions about the Lord. I am thankful to have been able to know her. So, now she has got to meet Jesus before me, she's entered eternity and singing praises to our Lord and King...Kate, I'm going to miss you. She was such a blessing to my life here and I look forward to glory.

“ oh there are no words for the ache and void in my heart at your sudden departure, Sis Kate. You were a rare and beautiful flower that earth's soil was not full enough...but now you bloom in God's garden....where you were always destined to be! This earth's soil was just too weak to "feed" you as you needed to be nurtured. My prayers are with your sweet family....as they try to adjust to the void in their lives.

You were a very VERY special friend.
