“ Though Katie Brady was a bit younger than me we were good friends. We shared many secrets and conversations that no one knows we had. She was what God would want you to see if you ask what does a Godly lady look and act like. Though She was only 22 years old, She was very mature and ready to take on the world with her husband Jay Brady.

I know from experience as a young Pentecostal girl you start praying at a young age, “God please don’t come back until I am married.” You dream of your fairytale life. And though she did not get to have it for long, God did honor that little Pentecostal girl’s prayer and allowed her to have her fairytale life for a time.

Katie we love and miss you very much. You are forever in my heart.
