“ Will, my mom told me about Mrs. Kaye this morning. I knew she had been ill, and I had thought of sending a card to her several times. Please know that I thought very highly of your mom and will miss her beautiful smile and her kind words. She treated me like a daughter, and I will never forget that.

“ Jack and family. I was shocked this morning when I read the obituary in the Clarion-Ledger. Even now, two hours later, I find it hard to believe.
Rosalind and I will keep you, Jay, and Will in our prayers, and trust that your strong faith will see you through this sadness.
