“ Hi my love, I will never get over not having you here and your dad and I will miss you always. The only consolation I have is that I know you are with the baby and you will always be together.
Love Mom and Dad

“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. Jesus gave us a hope in the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. At that time we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Ms. Simmons

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies in your great loss. It has been years since I last saw Kevin at FHS. But I wanted you to know that my heart goes out to all of you in this tragedy. My prayers will be for God to give you strength in the days ahead. And I will continue to pray for Devin's recovery.

“ This was recently shared with me and I think it is appropriate to share it. Sometimes it is difficult to express our sorrow and grief, but this may help to heal the pain from the loss of Kevin.

I wish Heaven had a phone so I could hear your voice again.. I thought of you today, but that is nothing new. I thought about you yesterday, and days before that too. I think of you in silence, I often speak your name. All I have are memories and a picture in a frame. Your memory is a keepsake, from which I'll never part. God has you in his arms.. I have you in my heart.

God Bless Kevin. He will be missed and will be in our hearts forever.
