“ Kim, whenever we were together i noticed other people wanted to know what in the world those twobwere up to. Because we talk loud and laughed loud. Especially you!!!!. I thank God for Mary Kay because of that we became instant friends. They say give a person Their flowers while the live. We did not exchange flowers but for the times we spent together we exchanged genuine friendship. You gave friendship it's meaning. "Live, Laugh and Love"..I'm truly going to miss you my girl...Ijust hate we didn't say goodbye to each other. You, and your are wonderful people... Love ya

“ I considered Kim my best friend for most of my life, though we only met in high school. She was a year younger than me and we met at a Music Booster her Freshman, we hardly paid attention to what the speaker was saying as we sat there giggling and telling each other jokes. I was telling her Polish jokes and was totally shocked she was of Polish decent. I think the look on my face, only made her laugh that much harder! I will always have a deep love of her forever, as she was always able to bring a smile to whom ever and where ever she went! I love you Kimmy!
