“ I am heartbroken to hear of Kisha's passing. I attended elementary school with her at Thomas until the 6th grade when my parents moved. She was one of my nearest and dearest friends growing up. We lost touch in our teen years and adulthood but I have such fond memories of her when we were little. She was so gregarious and quick to laugh. It was difficult to be in a bad mood when you were around her. My heart and prayers go out to her family.
