“ The first time I met this man was June 2021 . He trusted me to get his granddaughter there with is two great granddaughters there safely during the pandemic . I did just that. We sat around watched TV, talked politics of course , and enjoyed a pot of gumbo and blueberry dessert. After we took a ride around looking for the biggest watermelon, we found the right one. (I have the picture) He gave me a trucker map of the USA , and a lighter. I still have them both. He told me don't get lost . Lol. Thank you for the memories you gave me and my wife and daughters. We will miss you. I will use the map. We love you.
