

Levi Sumrall

March 10, 1954 - August 4, 2023

Alex Levi Sumrall, 69, passed away peacefully Friday morning August 4, 2023 after a courageous battle against cancer. He was born in Tylertown, Mississippi on March 10th, 1954 and for over twenty years worked as a lineman for various companies, including the South Louisiana Electric Cooperative Association. Levi was the best father to Alex and loved coaching him in baseball through the years. As his grandchildren got older, he liked playing golf with Peyton and Alex. Levi's favorite place in the world was the family camp on the Bogue Chitto River. He also enjoyed spending time with his dear friends at the V.F.W. watching LSU games.

Survived By:

Son and Daughter in law: Alex and Rachel Sumrall of Franklinton

Grandchildren: Madelyne Taylor Sumrall,
Peyton Alexander Sumrall

3 Brothers and a Sister: Jewell Sumrall of Franklinton,
Jeanette Sumrall of Franklinton,
Virgil Sumrall of Mississippi,

“ Levi and his family was awesome friends and neighbors for many years.

As kids we had so much fun and many laughs over the years. Levi and his entire family were terrific people especially Mr Zander and Mrs Liddie. I miss them all. God Bless and be with Levi's children and family.

“ Levi will always be the only man I ever truly loved. We could never seem to make it to the alter. He was a kindhearted man and loved his family very much. He would help anyone that needed it Through everything he and I went through we always stayed close. Loved to hear him laugh. I am going to miss him very much. He will always be in my heart. Praying for his family. Levi I am so broken hearted, when we last talked I told you that i will always love you and you said the same to me. Rest in peace my love.
