“ I am shocked and so saddened to hear of my dear cousin's passing. First Dellie and now Linda. They were closest in age to me. I always thought Linda was so beautiful. My comfort is that Linda and Dellie are together again. Glad we had our cousin reunion at Court of Two Sisters last time I was in New Orleans! Precious memories.

“ Such a loss for our family. I loved Linda and Adele. Linda's first marriage was to my brother, Gary L. Johnson, and she remained "family" throughout the rest of her life. She can rest easy in Heaven, in reunion with those in family who have preceded her. Fly high beautiful lady, you were the wind beneath so many others' wings.

“ Linda a special friend. I enjoyed having her in our ChristCare. I looked forward to the Times she would stop by on her way through to California, and we would get together for breakfast or lunch with Jackie, Sandi, Donna and I. I hope it gives the family peace and comfort knowing she is at peace in our father's house.
