“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. Then we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible.
Sincerely, Ms. Simmons

“ James (and Cindy),
I am so sorry to about your Mom. Unfortunately, I didn't read this until just now.... or I would have shown my respect in person.
May the Good Lord comfort you during this time.

“ Reagan, you are a special person to have taken care of your aunt, mom, and grandmother the way you did. I know you will be at a loss, as will your other family members. I didn't really know them, but I saw you with them many times. May God bless you all. I am out of town and not sure what time I will be in tomorrow, but if I don't see you, my thoughts and prayers are with you.
