Marcia A. Landry, age 74 received her angel wings on July 27, 2013. She was born April 14, 1939 in Pontiac, Michigan. She was the oldest of four children and daughter of the late Merrill D. Petrie and Marjorie C. Petrie of Pontiac, Michigan. Marcie is survived by her husband of 47 years Donald N. Landry of Franklinton, Louisiana, brother Mark Petrie and sister Marlene Petrie of Clearwater, FL, her sister Michele Petrie Dawson of Waterford, Michigan, 2 step daughters Dayle L. Landry of Bay St. Louis, Mississippi , and Donna A. Landry Visalia, California, granddaughter Melissa A. Landry of Bay St. Louis, Mississippi and niece Audrey Dawson and nephews Mark Dawson and Christopher Dawson. Her beloved Dalmatian Lacey.

Marcie's life included many different facets consisting of but not limited to flight attendant for United Airlines, accomplished horse woman and teaching. For all who knew her, there would never be a better friend. We love and will truly miss her.

A private gathering will be held at a later date for a celebration of Marcie's life.

“ Words cannot express how much I will miss my wonderful friend Marcie. She truly was "the hostess with the mostess". She had the rare trait of always being happy for the success of others. The life of the party who made everyone feel happy to be in her presence, that's my friend Marcie and I cant wait to see her again.
