They were even voted the regional GWRRA "Couple of The Year" for Louisiana, Texas and Oklahoma and then competed in the international competition in Indiana. She had also traveled to Paris, France and been to the top of the Eifel Tower. Marie loved spending time at the beach and snow-skiing the mountains of North Carolina. “ Dear Wendell, Wendi, and family,
We want to send our sincerest sympathy to you in the tremendous loss of such a precious soul. How clearly and dearly we remember meeting Marie and You Wendell in 2012 in Fort Wayne, Indiana. We were both GWRRA Couple of, the Year for our district and spent almost a week together. You both stood out to us in the group as exceptional people. ...sincere, caring, warm, sweet, quietly wise and deep. It has been our great privilege to continue the friendship through the years. We pray for you as you grieve and adjust to life without Marie. What a wonderful tribute you gave of her life. She ran the race well and is now receiving her reward.

With love,

“ My heart just does not want to accept the fact that she is gone. She fought so hard to keep living & be here with her family. She told me 3 wks ago that she wasn't ready to give up. May God wrap his arms around her family & comfort all our hearts as we face the days ahead. She will be so missed. RIP my friend.
