“ My grandmother was a wonderful, strong woman who carried herself with grace and dignity. She had class, style, integrity and tenacity.

When diagnosed with cancer 14 years ago, she fought courageously, and after beating it, generously volunteered to help inspire others to do the same.

She took pleasure in going to Church on Sundays, watching game shows, horror films, and playing poker.

Trips to Denver to see her family, where she marveled over the beautiful mountains filled with snow; and trips to various cities to reunite with my grandfather's war veteran buddies, were joyous times for her.

She loved all of her friends from Howard Ave, who were like family, and the lively social gatherings they had over the years.

Once retiring and moving out to the country, she enjoyed many cups of coffee and great conversations with her wonderful friends in Franklinton. Their love and support over the years since my grandfather's passing meant a great deal to her.

Mary David was a loving, caring family woman, and most of all, she loved her husband.

We miss you both very much and will try to take comfort in knowing you are together once again.

*Love Always,
'My Cin'*

“ Melinda, I am so sorry to hear of your mother's death. I loved that girl. Your dad was a lovable guy, too. One time he barked at me when they were my bank customers. It was when your g'mother died. I hugged your mothers neck and told her I was so sorry. He let me know real quick, "I'm gonna miss her, too!" So, he got a hug. I know your heart hurts. Love, Peggy
