“ She was always so nice to be with and even though at an old age she could Not do much she still was fun to be with with her birthday always being on one of the funniest days of the year even though I only saw her in 10 out of 11 years of my life she was fun to be with life can't last forever but memories can I think at least she is on a happy place now and not suffering she lived a long happy life and we can can't still have her but the memories will last forever I loved her so so much and I know it is sad to let go 97 years is along time living in almost a century and 2 milliniums God bless love blake corkern
