“ I didn't find out about Aunt Melva until I read the paper today. I wish I had known. She always made me feel like part of the family even after Ritchie and I divorced. I will always remember her for her kindness and loving way.
I will have all of you in my prayers.

“ Dear Family, I do not know most of you as I have lived away for many years. My Mother, Irma Miller, lived close to your Mother for many years. Your Mother was an angel of love to my Mother for so many years. Many times she would tell me of her visits and food she brought to her. Our great God has a place in Heaven ready for her--- she is home now! I hope you know how much she did for other people in her life. My prayers are with you.....Kaye Doss
