“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. At that time we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Ms. Simmons

“ Our hearts, love, and prayers are with you. He is a Buddy we were blessed with in our lives, to have known and loved. Not enough people in this world get to have "Michaels" in thier lives. I think he went out the way he wanted, leaving his mark. He loved life, a good laugh, and a good joke. How appropriate to leave us to be with his Master on April Fool's Day. I bet he's smiling down on us now. He made me promise not to cry when he died, but this wasn't a promise I could keep. Love, Flossie & Rodnor
