“ Kim, I only found out about your loss today. Just as each person is unique and special in God's eyes, so is the pain we feel when our love one is taken from us. The answers to all the questions that burden our heart now will be given to us in God's time. All I can do for you is pray for your peace in the many lonely days ahead. God knows your pain and He will ease your burden. Cherish the memories and give thanks to the Lord that He picked you to share Mike's life. God Bless You! Carol Miller

“ Kim, I also had the privilege of working with Mike at Roadway. Bill called to tell me what happened, and it was just so shocking. I didn't know Mike as well as Bill or many of you may have, but I knew from the first time I met him, "this is a good guy" and always considered him a friend. I cant remember "ever" seeing Mike without a smile on his face, or his eagerness to help someone. Even when he was frustrated with something, he was cracking jokes or trying to make the best of the situation. This world would be a much better place with more people like him. You and your family will always be in our thought's and prayers. Joey Worthing

“ Mike was a very kind person, I knew him through my husband, Bill, he and Mike worked together at Roadway for the past 10 years. Bill was very fond of Mike and I was too. When my husband had major surgery last year, Mike helped our family out tremendously. We could never repay him for all that he did. He was a very giving and generous person. I had his personal number on my phone, because he was the one I would call to keep updated on my husband's illness's, he would let their work know the status of Bill and keep them updated for me. I was very comfortable talking to him, he felt like a true friend to me. I think that Bill may have been the last to see Mike before he made his trip home Monday night and is and was so shocked to know that his coworker and friend is no longer with us. He thought of him highly. I know that the loss of someone so close is difficult to bear and we want you to know that we share in your grief. You will live in our hearts and prayers. “ Kim, Mr. & Mrs. Miley, and Family,
I am so sorry for your loss. Mike will surely be missed by everyone who knew him. I was very saddened when I was told today by Mike's co-worker.
As a mother who has lost a child, I know there are no words right now that can make your hurt any easier. Just remember that Mike is with God now and one day you will get to see him again.
