“ So sorry for your loss. Mike was a dear friend to me at work. We worked several years together in the lime kiln. He was the millwright and I was the pipefitter. We shared a lot of conversations about a lot of things but his favorite was his family and how proud he was of his girls and how good they were at basketball. We didn't always agree on everything but we always agreed on how much we loved our families. Missed him at our mill reunion this week. Sorry I was unable to attend the funeral but I didn't learn of Mikes passing till I got the Era Leader a week later.

Sincerely, Rodney Wascom

My heart breaks for you and your family. It's so difficult to say goodbye to your loved one. Mike was a good husband and father. You've been lifted up in prayer to our Father God. He is with you forever. We will see our loved ones who died in Christ when we join them in heaven. I look forward to that day.
