“ So sorry to hear of your loss. I have so many memories of Ms. Mildred for the days we were children running around the neighborhood. I remember seeing her one day in the grocery store. She hugged and kissed me on the cheek and told me she loved me as her own. I didn't know she had left a lipstick mark on my cheek until somebody in another store told me. Years later when I would kiss my son and leave a lipstick mark on his cheek, I would tell him he just got a Ms Mildred kiss!!!
