“Peggy, Molly, Lea, and Rebecca, We were so sorry to hear about your loss and that we could not be with you at the funeral home. We will always remember our fun times together at Bethel. Ted recalls how much fun Morris had watching Will misbehave at church and having to be taken out many times. I know this is a tremendous loss for you all because he truly loved his family.

“ I'm saddened to hear of Morris' death. We played football together in high school and I remember him as a good player, but moreso, a good guy. Please accept my sympathies at this time of your lives.

“ Alas, another classmate enters the great realm with no frontiers. Morris' gentle spirit touched more lives among his classmates than even he imagined. He handled adversity well while here and helped plant good seed on this earth to carry on now that he is gone. This is all any man (or woman) can hope for! Judy, Peggy and Family please accept my heartfelt sympathy at your earthly loss. Grady Howell, Class of '65

“ As a classmate of Morris', I have to tell you that he was the sweetest, kindest guy in school. He was always smiling ... always being nice. I imagine he continued those qualities throughout his life which made him very special to so many people. May your sweet memories sustain you in this sorrowful time.
