“ Karen, Lynn, Brian and family, although I was unavoidably detained from honoring "Ms. Nell" during her wake and funeral, I wanted all of you to know how deeply I respected and enjoyed knowing Mr. Von and Mrs. Nell. They were gentle, kind and capable parents and family members to look up to, and few of us ever attain the respectability that they deserved. What quiet courage and determination your parents/grandparents possessed as they walked through this vale. They will be missed, but never be forgotten as long as you live, and of course the grandchildren were especially fortunate to have gotten to hold onto Mrs. Nell for all these years-as have you and I and the others who knew them. God bless you in this time of absence in the body but with full understanding of her presence with the Lord God Almighty. We will be joining them soon enough, and to that thought I comment, God Speed.
