“ *Herbie, Judy and Tommy, you all are in my thoughts at this sad time. Sad for you and all who loved your Momma. But what a happy time for her! As one of the best examples of a Christian woman, Miss Ouida is where she's lived her life to be. With her Savior! She loved Jesus, her family, her church and her friends in the way we all should. In years past, Miss Ouida and I had good visits in Ann Warner's Sunday School class when I would visit with my Momma. She loved to tell me about y'all. Your Momma was loved by many, including me.
Forever friends are special!
Lovingly,
Martha Knight Elliott*

“ Judy ... I think there is nothing more enduring than the love of a child when young. I grew in love with your mom and your dad, you, Herbie, and Tommy, when ya'll moved into the neighborhood and we became fast friends. As soon as I got to know your mom, I developed a deep affection for this sweet, sweet lady! This is the love I will carry in my heart for your mother. My deepest condolences, and prayers, for your family.
