

Patricia Renee Toney Sibley

November 16, 2017

Patricia Renee Toney Sibley, a native of Franklinton, Louisiana and a resident of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, passed away on Thursday, November 16, 2017 at The Crossing in Baton Rouge. She was 56. She was a housekeeper and operated a maid service for 19 years. She enjoyed passing time playing on her I-Pad, playing cards, and was a big fan of football. She also enjoyed couponing. She is survived by her husband, Kenneth Sibley; her daughter, Kendrell Sibley Williams and her husband Arthur and their children: Makhia and Malik Williams; and by her son, Kenneth Sibley, Jr. She is also survived by her sisters: Barbara Toney Tompkins and husband Raymond of Texas, and Brenda Toney Kennedy of Franklinton; as well as by her brother James Ronald Toney and his wife Gwen of Holden. She is preceded in death by her mother Essie Mae Miller Toney Lambert; her father James Clyde Toney; and a brother Wayne Toney. Visitation will be held at Rabenhorst Funeral Home East, 11000 Florida Boulevard, Baton Rouge, on Sunday, November 19, 2017, from 2pm until 5pm. Visitation will resume on Monday, November 20, 2017, at Crain Funeral Home, 1109 Bene Street, Franklinton, at 10:00 am, and will continue until service at 1:00 pm, conducted by Brother Lavon Taylor. Burial is to follow at Star Hill Missionary Baptist Church Cemetery in Warnerton.

Tribute Wall

“ Brenda, Raymond, & Barbara,

Our sincere condolences on the passing of your sister. Know that you are in our thoughts and prayers.

David & Anita Wood

David & Anita Wood - November 20, 2017 at 09:17 PM