“ There are a number of names in the obituary for Patrick that bring good memories to me as I think of my days at Mt. Hermon. I never met him, but I think from the read it appears that he kept the tradition of being the southern gentleman like those I still remember with love. My blessing to the families and keep those fond memories locked in your heart.

“ Mr Patrick was one of mine & my daughter's teachers. If she was struggling he'd call me and start the conversation off with 'she's been expelled'. I always got a good laugh when he would call me. We were shocked to hear about his passing. He was a great teacher - person.

“ No words can make up for the loss of a family member. Just know that heaven gained a true angel who was met by other family members. Hugs and prayers to Ms Margaret, Brad and other family members during this time of loss.
