“ Words cannot express our sorrow at the passing of our friend. I remember with fondness and love the kindnesses that she did for me. My heart goes out to you, Percy, and all your family. I pray that knowing that she is with our Lord and that one day we will join her will comfort you in the days to come. Love, Ernestine and Charles

“ Mr. Percy and family, I ask the Lord to give you a peace that surpasses all understanding and the strength to continue this life until you meet Mrs. Pat at the gates of Heaven. She lived her life in servie for the Lord and I am certain that God welcomed her home saying "Well done, my good and faithful servant". She was a wonderful lady and will be sorely missed by everyone who had the privilege of knowing her.
