“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. At that time we wil never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Ms. Simmons

“ Please except my deepest condolences for not just your loss but the loss to everyone that ever came in contact with him. Mr Ralph never met a stranger and was always so nice to everyone. He never forgot who I was no matter how long it had been since our paths had crossed. He was a wonderful man and will be missed by many, many people. May God hold u close and ease the pain for your many days ahead.

“ I am so sorry. I am too far removed from Franklinton and Enon but it seems only a such short time ago that I last saw Ralph at the fair even though it was several years past. I am pleased that I did see him then and regret not being there later.
