“ To express our deepest sympathy to the family. Randy was much too young to die! Randy is my second cousin and I met him when my mother passed away in Jan 2016 when Randy and his wife helped with serving and providing a wonderful meal after her graveside service at Hays Creek Baptist Church. I am so glad I got to meet him! Just talking with him for a short while, I could tell he was a good man! May you feel God's comforting arms around you during this sad time. Sincerely, Bob & Sandra Brumfield Reinhold

“ I spent a good portion of my childhood in Mr Randy's house with Scott. I have so many good memories of being entertained with his smiles, sarcasms, and all his funny idioms and sayings. Even today, I'll say something and my kids will say, that's funny, where'd that come from. And I'd have to say, ol' Mr Randy, my buddy, Scott's dad used to always say that. So long Mr Randy.

We will miss our friend or more like a "brother" to us when we lost Randy yesterday morning.... He was truly a man that everyone would want in their life....so giving of his time, but mostly of his HEART Randy would do anything to help anyone in need no matter what he was in the middle of doing, that's the kind of man he was.... thinking of others first always... He was funny , oh so funny... We'd laugh so hard at his jokes, his stories til our stomachs hurt with pain.... Such good times..Randy loved his Cindy too ... He loved her so very much !! He loved all their children & grandchildren so very much too & loved spending time with them & doing the country fun things with them like we do with ours... Such precious times !! Randy was our deacon at church.... I always called him "Big Bear" & we always hugged each other every Sunday & he'd always kiss me on the top of my head like I was his little sister... I'm going to miss that so much now & also seeing him walk thru those church doors & walking up to the pulpit with his guitar to sing a special song for us... sometimes a song he had written himself & put the music too & it was always so beautiful.. no matter how bad Randy felt some Sundays, he always made it to church... Him & Cindy both... They always were 2 peas in a pod... We know where Randy is now, He's with Jesus.... We know he doesn't want us crying or mourning him , but he knows us better than that... We can't help it because we're human... We will see him again one day when our day comes & that will be a glorious day We love you Randy, thank you for being our friend , our "brother" all these years, we don't say good-bye, just see you later.... Cindy , we love you dearly, you are not going to be left alone honey... We are going to be with you to get you thru this & the rest of your life really, so you'll just have to put up with Ricky & I !! God bless you & your family & we love all of you dearly !!!!!
