“ This week we went to the Funeral of our brother John
He was the real deal and his life was a phenomenon
He would be the first one to tell you of his colorful past
When he received salvation, he got a dose that would last

He was always quick with a funny story
Tales of what he did when he was a boy
In the lineup of nine kids he was number three
No one knew at that time how successful he'd be

He may have made a mess of life for awhile
But his comeback days really showed his style
His love for Jesus always shined through
He hearts desire was souls he could rescue

He prayed and visited the sick as long as he could
He was the visitation Pastor in his neck of the woods
Also he used his office to preform some weddings
Many times his own home was the perfect setting

Now I believe John has gone to heaven to his reward
His first request would be to see his Savior and his Lord
Who knows what sights he may get to behold
As he walks on down those streets of gold

“ Mrs. Sue and family, I have such very fond memories of you and Bro. John from serving with y'all at First Baptist, Pine, and always enjoyed visiting in your home. Both of you inspired all of us with your love for our Lord and your commitment to faithful service. We cannot conceive of the joy he is experiencing today in the presence of Jesus and look forward to the reunion one day. May God grant you the comfort that only he can give and may His Presence fill your heart as you adjust to this temporary separation.

“ Brother John was a man I respected very much. I grew to love him and Mrs. Sue! I took comfort in his words of wisdom as a very Godly man. I will miss him forever and Pine First Baptist will mourn his passing for a very long time. There will always be something missing in our church now. I know Brother John is looking into the eyes of our Lord. I can only imagine!! Rest in peace, dear friend!! Job well done!!

“ Brother John was a good man . Neighbor. And I sure like to talk to him. He also like a good watermelon. To my knowledge he loved being God's worker.
