“ I am probably the most blessed because the only Richard I knew and get to remember is the real Richard, the Richard of forty years ago. That gentle giant of a man who loved his family, loved his neighbor, enjoyed his work and enjoyed helping people. He was always so respectful of the older generation and always so glad to welcome one into his home. We will share a hug and a tear when I come. Mr. Finley

“ Lorraine so sorry to hear about your husband. Did not know him but always heard good things about him from my Mother, Stella Smith. We do not always understand why God takes one so young but not for us to question.
