“ I was on driving home in the rain tonight & telling my daughter stories of my childhood and something made me think of you. I told her about the countless hours we spent on the phone before Internet and social media. You always made me laugh! I was so happy for you when i found out you were married to a beautiful woman & had 4 gorgeous kids! I happened to go to your FB to request you & couldn't believe what I was reading. I Dk what happened, I may never... But I know your in heaven making a lot of people laugh! I will pray for your family, I know they must love you as everyone does. RIP my friend, thanks for the memories! Fly high!
