“ Family and friends; Our thoughts and prayers are with each of you during this sad time. We pray you let the Lord help you find peace and try to help you answer those hard questions we all need to know of why so young, why. The Lord in time will comfort you in praising Robert's name, focus on the fun times, sweet memories of that smile and wonderful humor he shared. We have you today in prayer; and in the day and months to come. In sympathy Bobby and Sissy Hemphill; friends Columbia, Tn.

“ Miss Clara, Cathy, Theresa So sorry to hear the sad news of Robert Joe from home. It was a blessing from God to have gotten to see him in the hospital before leaving for work. Robert was a wonderful person to have known and grow up with. Robert Joe was a few months older than me if you all remember and i will always think of those younger days as we grew up. May God Bless each and everyone during this sad time.
