“ Ron and I had a fine trip to Kansas City back in the '90s, and picked up an old car to haul home for him to repair. We enjoyed talking together and swapping lies all the way to KC and back home. We never ran out of subjects to talk about. Ron was an all around "good guy" who loved his family and would try to do anything they would ask him to do. Although our prayers for healing were not granted, we know that God knows best and knows what an awesome after-life we enter when we reach the pearly gates of Heaven. God bless you all in the knowledge of the Life Christ has awaiting us. Jesus told his disciples (and us): "In my Father's house are many mansions. If it were not so I would have told you. And if I go to prepare a place for you, I will surely come again and receive you unto my self."

I remember always going up to the shop with my dad Keith Graves, who used to work for Mr. Ronald, and always talking to him and Mrs. Joyce while dad painted cars and repaired them. I can't even count the number of times I went with him on the wrecker and just plain out had fun. R.I.P. Mr. Ronald.
