“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. At that time we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Ms. Simmons

“ I remember so well my first grade year at Pine School. Mrs. Rose was my teacher. I remember her sweetness during those days in class. She pushed me to excel every day, and for that I'm grateful. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her. Your family is in my prayers.

“ Randy and Aylene, You have been such loving children to Mrs. Rose. You have been diligent in trying to provide everything that she needed these last few years-what a great example of love and devotion you are to all of us. Many years ago I took some graduate courses at SLU with Mrs. Rose. She was the most dedicated student ever-always being sure that she had that "A" in all of her courses. She was a very hard worker, most dedicated to her pursuits in her career. May God bless you and care for you in your time of loss. I know you are comforted to know today that she is no longer suffering, but in Heaven, finally reunited with your other dear family members.
